BANKS OF THE WABASH FESTIVAL—FAIRBANKS PARK ARTS & MUSIC FESTIVAL—WABASH VALLEY FESTIVAL

"ON THE BANKS OF THE WABASH"

Terre Haute Parks and Recreation 1110 Girl Scout Lane Terre Haute, Indiana 47807-4601

Dear Not for Profit Vendor / Exhibitor,

Thank you for your interest in the Banks of the Wabash Festival. On the following pages you will find general regulations, information and the application form for the Not for Profit, non food vendor. If you have any questions please don't hesitate to call.

The Banks of the Wabash Festival, which originated in 1974, has been continuously held in Fairbanks Park. In 1984 the festival came under the guidance of the Terre Haute Parks and Recreation Department. This year, the 10 day festival is from May 23rd through June 1st. It will feature a merchandise and craft market, bingo, food, entertainment, and Leuhrs' Ideal Rides.

Not for Profit, non food vendors / exhibitors are positioned, on a space available basis, at the discretion of the festival organizers.

Priority placement, in designated areas, has been reserved for our Merchandise, Craft, and Food Vendors, in order to maintain the continuity of their particular areas. Even so, desirable positions are still available for the Not for Profit, non food vendor / exhibitor in all of our customer friendly areas.

We look forward to your participation, this year, at our 36th Banks of the Wabash Festival.

Sincerely,

John Dice

BANKS OF THE WABASH FESTIVAL—FAIRBANKS PARK ARTS & MUSIC FESTIVAL—WABASH VALLEY FESTIVAL

GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR NOT FOR PROFIT NON FOOD VENDORS / EXHIBITORS

- 1. The management may at any time enter and inspect any portion of your exhibit.
- 2. Vehicles will not be allowed to drive through pedestrian selling walkways during scheduled open hours. If you need to open your booth late, or close early, all supplies must be carried manually. No exceptions.
- 3. If it is necessary to drive through the walkways during closed hours, please drive very slowly.
- 4. The management reserves the right to remove or refuse any exhibit and merchandising which in their judgment is below standard, offensive, dangerous or not in keeping with exhibits and merchandising of high character.
- 5. The management, in the interest of safeguarding the rights of all exhibitors, reserves the right to regulate, and prohibit, if need be, use of excessive lights, fans, cooling devices, motors, suction machines, audio-amplifiers and other conditions, if the same create any undue interference with the rights of neighboring exhibitors. You may not run air-conditioners in your living quarters while the festival is open, our electric supply will not stand the load.
- Exhibitors will not be allowed to sell any items that may be considered to be a weapon. Weapons include, but are not limited to guns, knives, arrows, swords or throwing stars. Additional items prohibited are: 1. Fireworks of any kind, 2. "Pops" or "Snaps"
- 7. Exhibitors are allowed to sell, or give away, only what has been accepted on their contract. Merchandise, craft, and not for profit vendors are not allowed to sell, or give away, bottled water or soft drinks or snack, or prepared food items. In the Markets and in the food court there are designated specialty food vendors that retain exclusivity over the above items. If you violate this rule you will be asked to leave.
- 8. Exhibitors must confine their promotions, exhibiting, demonstrations, and sales to within the boundaries, on all sides, of the space that they have reserved, as noted on their Vendor's application.
- 9. The Terre Haute Parks and Recreation Department believes it is necessary, in consideration that its workload not be delayed, that all vendors remove their equipment, vehicles, and campers and are out of Fairbanks Park by Monday June 3rd at 10:00a.m. This rule is in conjunction with Section 5-83 of Municipal Code, Ordinance No. 12, 1993 and will be enforced.

INFORMATION

- 1. Electricity (20 amp) will be provided, but you must have your own heavy-duty extension cord from the outlet. A #12 minimum wire size is recommended. It is necessary for good operation of heating devices.
- 2. Security is provided for the festival 24 hours a day. After the festival closes in the evening, police officers will randomly drive through the park to assure that there are no problems.
- 3. Neither the TERRE HAUTE PARK AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT NOT JOHN DICE will be responsible for the security or destruction of personal or saleable merchandise.
- 4. Applications will be taken until the festival starts, however space is usually very limited by the first week of May. Please try to get your application in as early as possible.
- The following mailing address for vendor's / exhibitor's deliveries only, during the festival is: 1110 Girl Scout Lane, Terre Haute, IN 47807

- Re: Restrictions on the sale of prohibited items

Regarding:

Sections 39, 917.03 of the Terre Haute Parks and Recreation Department Policy and Procedures Manual addresses the policy regarding the sale and display of firearms or related items which could be interpreted as a weapon, including knives, throwing stars, and other similar items. This policy states these items are prohibited on any City of Terre Haute park property.

This policy will be strictly enforced during the Banks of the Wabash Festival.

Additionally, in conjunction with the policy, the following items are also prohibited:

- Fireworks of any kind
- "Pops" or "Snaps" or similar items. These items are a form of fireworks, and when thrown against a hard surface they create a loud sound similar to that of a firecracker.

On behalf of the City of Terre Haute and the Department of Parks and Recreation, your cooperation is greatly appreciated.
